SEEKING GERIATRICIAN

Summary: WVSOM is seeking two full-time tenure track faculty members in Geriatrics. Position requires completion of a residency and Board Certification or Board Eligibility in Internal Medicine or Family Practice, as well as completion of fellowship training or a certification of added qualification in Geriatrics. Ideally the successful candidate will have clinical and teaching experience. The candidate must also be able to be licensed in the State of West Virginia.

Responsibilities: Primary responsibilities include providing pre and post doctoral education and training to WVSOM students, interns, and residents and administering the Geriatric Fellowship. Academic duties include lecturing, assisting in skills labs and coordinating the geriatrics curriculum for years 1-4. It is expected that the successful candidate will spend 50 percent of their time providing clinical care including nursing home care. Hospital practice is available if desired. Research is supported and encouraged but not required.

Benefits: Salary and faculty rank will be commensurate with experience. WVSOM offers an excellent benefits package including medical malpractice insurance, educational loan reimbursement, and relocation expenses.

Our ambulatory clinic is a state-of-the-art facility serving communities in the greater Greenbrier Valley area and providing care for a population base of approximately 75,000. The clinic specializes in Geriatrics, Geriatric Psychiatry, Family Medicine, Internal Medicine, Pediatrics and Osteopathic Manipulative Medicine. The clinic has 66,000 patients annually.

Our campus is located in Lewisburg, a picturesque community nestled in the Appalachian Mountains. In addition to being named as one of America's Best Small Art Towns, Lewisburg has an array of eclectic restaurants, outdoor activities, antique shops, art galleries and live theater supported by varied local artists and benefactors. The community is also supported with a regional medical center and excellent educational opportunities for students of all ages. To get a glimpse of this charming community, visit www.lewisburg-wv.com or www.greenbrierwv.com.
